

How do you keep from biting the hook?

Write a way (or have a parent write) on each fish and then color them. Hang it in a spot in the house where you will remember to look at it often so you are ready when a hook comes down!

